The recommended honorarium for pulpit supply for 2008 will be as follows:

- 1. Ministers of the Word and Sacrament: $100 plus mileage reimbursed at the standard IRS rate (2008 IRS rate is: .585 per mile effective 7-01-08)
- 2. Commissioned Lay Pastors: $75 plus mileage reimbursed at the standard IRS rate.

Commissioned Lay Pastors (CLP) With An On-Going Relationship With A Particular Church:

Commissioned Lay Pastors (CLP) who have an on-going relationship with a particular church are considered as ministers for income-tax and social security purposes, and may have a portion of their earnings designated as tax-free housing allowance. These CLPs should have their taxable income reported on a W-2 with no employer withholding. They are to be considered as self-employed, and each CLP is responsible for their income-tax liability and their full social security tax (15.3%). (See IRS Publication 517 for more information.)

CLPs That Supply Preach: CLPs that supply preach at a church with no on-going covenant relationship and who receive more than $600 from that particular church should have their income reported on a 1099 with no employer withholding.

Questions about honorarium, contact Rich Fifield or Kim Fifield at 1-888-674-0009 (toll free).
